

Lights, camera, action!

PBIFF gears up for 19th season

The Palm Beach International Film Festival (PBIFF) recently announced its lineup for the 19th season, set to take place April 3 through April 10. The festival will present features, documentaries and short films from the U.S. and around the world including Brazil, Venezuela, France, England, Israel, Hong Kong, Japan, India, New Zealand, Austria, the Philippines, Croatia, Australia, Canada, Germany and South Korea. Filmmakers, producers and actors will be on hand to represent and discuss their films.

Opening night will kick off April 3 at Cinemark Palace 20 with "Belle," directed by Amma Asante and starring Gugu Mbatha-Raw, Emily Watson, Tom Felton, Sam Reid and Tom Wilkinson. The screening will be followed by a party at Bogart's Bar & Grille on the Premier Level of Cinemark Palace.

The festival will close April 10 with "Cas & Dylan," which stars Richard Dreyfuss and Jayne Eastwood. Directed by Jason Priestley, who will be in attendance, the screening will take place at Cinemark Palace 20 and be followed by the "It's a Wrap" party at Bogart's Bar & Grille.

Throughout the 10-day festival, guests will enjoy parties and screenings including "Broadway: Beyond the Gold Age," where actor Robert Morse and director Rick McKay will be attending as special guests and receive the Lifetime Achievement and Visionary Awards respectively. Other festivities include "Toast of the Town-A Tribute to Classic Hollywood," a special gala reception following the screening of "A Year in Champagne;" special film program, seminars and more.

Film screenings will take place at Muvico Parisian 20 and IMAX at CityPlace in West Palm Beach, Cobb Downtown at the Gardens, Lake Worth Playhouse Stonzek Theatre in Lake Worth, and Cinemark Palace 20 in Boca Raton.

Various passes and single tickets are available at different prices. For more information, call 561-362-0003 or visit www.pbiffilmfest.org.

The Palm Beach International Film Festival is nonprofit organization supporting film programs in local schools and dedicated to making a difference in the lives of future filmmakers by helping them fulfill their dreams to work in the world of film. ■

Randi Emerman, left, and Burt Rapoport

Caryn Picker, left, John Oxendine and Melanie Cabot

Donna DeSanctis, left, and Shelley Blaine Goodman

Wendy Honig

Photos by Brielle deMartino

Step into Spring

with 20% off
all Sale Merchandise

Further markdowns taken! New markdowns added!

Savings up to 80% off!

*Excludes prior sales, Cannot be combined with other store promotions. Sale ends 4/2/14

BARBARA KATZ

2240 NW 19th Street, Suite 601 * Boca Raton * 561-391-1066 Mon-Sat 10am - 6pm
Featuring SeneGence 24 Hour, Anti-aging, Waterproof Cosmetics * barbarakatz.com