Clematis Social to Host Friends of Palm Beach International Film Festival

BOCA RATON, FL, February 4, 2009 – Clematis Social, the Rapoport Restaurant Group's new hot spot in West Palm Beach, is hosting a cocktail party for the Friends of the Palm Beach International Film Festival on Thursday, February 12, from 6 to 8 p.m.

Clematis Social, located at 223 Clematis Street, will provide an array of passed appetizers and one cocktail for each guest. Tickets are $10 in advance and $15 at the door with all funds benefitting the Palm Beach International Film Festival.

The 2009 Palm Beach International Film Festival will take place April 23-27. The Friends of the Festival are singles and couples, from Boca to Jupiter, looking for exciting new networking events and ways in which to support the Festival. The Friends offers an array of fun-filled events that will raise funds and awareness on a year-round basis for the Palm Beach International Film Festival. The events staged by the Friends of PBIFF will be an additional way to financially support these upcoming filmmakers. There is no membership fee to join the Friends of the Film Festival.

About PBIFF

The Palm Beach International Film Festival, taking place April 23-27, is a 501(c)(3) not for profit organization supporting film programs in local schools and dedicated to making a difference in the lives of future filmmakers by helping them fulfill their dreams to one-day work in the world of film.

Founded in 1996, the Palm Beach International Film Festival emerged as a major cultural venue for the community as well as a productive fundraiser for film and TV education. Each year it introduces filmmakers worldwide to the area's unique resources, while celebrating the history and future of the film industry with seven days of world premieres, special events, seminars, feature films, short films and documentaries.
